Paul Kelly of the Gideon Bible Society presents a Bible to Bob Larson during the Greater Blessing ceremony at Bob's home. Bob's roof is finished and insulation in the attic is installed.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Luke 2:10-14

Greater Blessings

Duane Little witnesses Bob Larson's signature on Bob's pledge to repay our costs for expenses on his home repair. The roof installation was a joint effort with Shoshone Mt. Retreat youth groups and the Fuller Center Bike Adventurers. We also did hire some labor to supervise and finish the job.

Bob watches from his porch after the ceremony as Paul Kelly, Duane Larson, Ellie Arguimbau, and Kim Short admire his new roof.

Rev. Art Fleming blesses her home at Mary Kay Hanson's Greater Blessings ceremony.

Ellie Arguimbau admires Mary Kay Hanson's new porch railing installed by Kevin Hutchings.

Debbie Bornitz watches as neighbor, Rick Wood, shows CJ Evans what repairs need to be done at Debbie's home. Rick has been helping when he had some free time.

CJ, Rick & Debbie discuss the removal of the back porch. The immediate concern is freezing pipes; the porch can be rebuilt next spring.

2014 Silver Valley Arts & Craft Fair

Darnell Kriedeman helps set up our booth on Friday night. The painting donated by Cattails was part of the 3rd prize.

Jackie Kannegaard admires the prizes we raffled, including the vase donated by Bitterroot Mercantile.

Celia Ruff watches as Alex Carter draws the 2nd winning ticket while Preston Cummings awaits his turn to draw the 3rd ticket. . The JROTC assisted with setting up and cleaning up—great job. Photos by Judy

Ellie Arguimbau helps Shawn Markus with her 1st prize winnings. The lovely Christmas serving ensemble donated by Bitterroot Mercantile was included with the basket.

Maxine Milot won the 3rd prize, which include the painting donated by Cattails. We were fortunate that all winners lived in the Valley and received their baskets immediately.

We thank these businesses for supporting our newsletter.

We have been blessed with special grants from AVISTA, Hecla, and Walmart Corp. Thank You!

For your “little engines that couldn’t”, call Gene Fulton at 682-3041. We appreciate his help with ours.

Since we don’t have enough volunteers, Verne hired Ron Brown to help at the ReUse Store. Here he is sorting large windows.

Jackie Kannegaard was appropriately excited to win the 2nd prize basket our booth at the Silver Valley Arts & Craft Fair. Her friends say she is “very lucky.”

Since Judy was leaving for Thanksgiving and R’Gean was out of town, Kim Short and Ellie Arguimbau volunteered to learn how to run the newsletter mailing workshop. Here, Judy guides them through the postal paperwork.

Mary Kay Hanson smiles as Ellie Arguimbau witnesses her signature on the repayment pledge for the Greater Blessings work on the railings at her home. We are delighted to be able to complete these projects and are still working on more. Need more volunteers!
