

Family Selection Orientation Meeting Held September 7th.

On September 7th, we convened our Family Selection Orientation Meeting, which saw an impressive turnout of nearly 40 attendees, including dedicated Fuller Center volunteers. During the meeting, we provided valuable insights to potential applicants, covering the selection process, guidance on accruing sweat equity hours, and the importance of financial responsibility.

Cindy Wood, a representative from Family Promise in Coeur d'Alene, delivered an informative presentation on financial matters, shedding light on predatory lending practices and offering valuable resources to aid individuals in preparing for homeownership. Casey Duncan, Chairman of the Family Selection Committee, also shared crucial information on these topics and more.

The remarkable attendance generated a surge in family applications and volunteer sign-ups. We are excited about this influx of interest and look forward to selecting the next family in the coming months. In the meantime, we're heartened by the enthusiasm of numerous volunteers eager to join our mission.

If you're interested in contributing your time and skills, please don't hesitate to reach out to our new volunteer coordinator, Tahnee Winters, at 208-512-9869. We thank Tahnee for stepping up to help coordinate the volunteers. We are still in great need of construction site supervisors – your support will make a meaningful difference in our mission.

Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's. - 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Wallace Donations

Wallace businesses have generously donated many items for our raffles. Some recent donations have been received from the following Wallace businesses:

Rayma Shields & "Shop Dog" Jake, from Idaho Silver donated a silver pendant. Heather Garitone from Wallace Ace Hardware Ace Hardware hold gift cards donated to our cause. Brady Bourgard, owner and proprietor of North Idaho Trading – hold three local history books which were donated to us. Becky Koenders, new owner of the 1313 Club displays a sweatshirt and tasting glass that were donated. Sarah Murphy of Sol & Serre holds a certificate of appreciation presented to her for her donations of flower arrangement gift cards. Stacey Strange and Kelly Woods of Sierra Silver Mine Tour hold a gift basket they donated. Tabitha McNamee, 6th & Cedar Espresso Bar & Saloon holds a donated T-shirt.

26th Annual Fuller Center Walk-A-Thon

September 16, 2023. Not too cold...not too hot...not too wet...not too dry. In other words a perfect day for the 26th Annual Fuller Center for Housing Walk A Thon!

We had 14 walkers and 4 helpers and 3 four legged friends.

$2,500.00 was collected this year. One of the best years we've had.

Lois Dahlberg was our top contributor. She attributes that to her family.

We all enjoyed fruit that was generously donated by Barney's. Patsy Lemieux brought donuts and sweets to replenish the walkers. Dan Michael brought a cooler with water.

Everyone selected a prize from the many generous donations that our local businesses give each year to support our cause. We wouldn't be able to do it without them and all our volunteers.

As always a big shout out to my family and friends for their help - Dan Michael, Danny Scott, Patti Houchin, Ashley Mitchell, Sharon Jacobs, Sam Scott, and LeRoy Scott.

Until next time. - Penny Michael

Pastor Bill Howard of the Silver Valley Worship Center offers a blessing for this event.

While Walk Chair, Penny Michael, completes paperwork Danny Michael, Eric & Clara Hall, Grandpa Jerry White, and Patsy Lemieux gather at the end of the event.

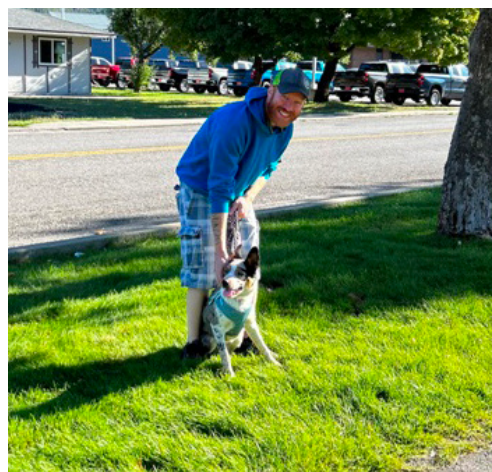

Patsy Lemieux registers with Sharon Jacobs and Patti Houchin while Ellie Arguimbau and Ramona Hollenbeck visit with Lois Dahlberg.

See page 5 for more walk info

We thank these businesses for supporting our newsletter.
