2022 Golf Scramble

We were all set up at the Pinehurst Golf Course with prizes and makings for a great taco bar. But only 3 teams were able to make it to the event through the heavy traffic and no place to park. The Camencheros Car Show was certainly well attended after surviving COVID for 2 years. We wish them well and plan to move our event to July next year.

We thank: the Pinehurst Golf Course for hosting the event; Kathy McPeak for organizing the event; Peggy Daugherty of Timbers Roadhouse for preparing the taco filling both with ground beef and with ground elk donated by Carl and Helen Blalack; and Dave Smith Motors for making it special by donating $2000 toward the event.

Kathy McPeak and Maggie Beeler hold the Dave Smith Banner.

Members of the first place winning team were Eric Larson, Jim Scott, and Burke Spensky. Their prizes were special hammerheaded golf clubs created by Norm Holtz.

The four members of the youthful second place team were Brodie Robinson, Johnny Stover, Blake Coburn and Easton Towne.

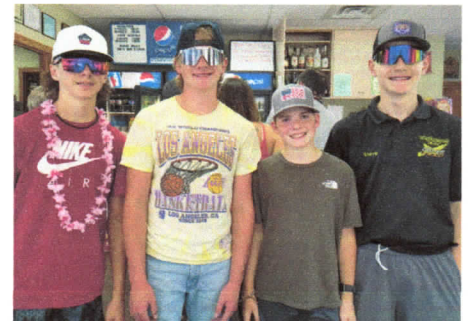

Jeremy Streeter and Amanda Wilde were the third placed team. [Sadly due to the length of time before everyone finished their rounds, some of the earlier team members had to leave before the prize photos were taken.]

Brian's Trailer Update

Ezra Christopher came to the trailer at 906 Polaris in Osburn to take videos of the trailer. His uncle, Joshua Braunstein requested he do so to facilitate the planning of the work to be done on September 4th and 5th. Ezra drove here from his home in Liberty Lake to find that so much work will be necessary to make the the trailer livable. John Boy Delaney was there at the trailer also to guide Ezra to some special trouble spots including underneath the trailer. We appreciate the assistance from both Ezra and John Boy on this ongoing project.

Judy Has Help With the Newsletter!

Judy & Siobhan Curet (pronounced "Shivon") met at Sam's Restaurant in Kellogg to discuss what Siobhan can do to assist with newsletter layout. Siobhan has offered to assist Judy with the newsletter each month.

Originally from Salmon, Idaho, Siobhan lives in Wallace and enjoys helping others in the Silver Valley. Siobhan is looking forward to learning more about the Fuller Center with their mission and assisting where she can.

Huckleberry Festival

Bob Whitman and Norm Holtz set their table up in front of Fonks and greeted those passing by during the Huckleberry Festival. They sold two types of raffle tickets and explained the Fuller Center's purpose. Winner of the 50/50 raffle donated her winnings back as did the winner of the 50/50 at the Golf Scramble—THANK YOU!

Redeemer Youth Group

Nine volunteers, (Meggie Cross, Eathan Keith, Alex Case, Tobin McKeon, Kendall Goff, Jen Lundberg, Cameron Gardner, Codie Boggs, and Autumn Borg) from The Redeemer Lutheran Church youth group help during their stay with Idaho Servant Adventurers at Shoshone Mountain Retreat. While some helped with specific Fuller Center tasks, the others did yard work.

Hudson Raulston and Alex Case, with the Redeemer Lutheran youth from Spokane Valley, help Verne finish getting a box of newsletters ready to mail.

Cameron Gardner weedeats around the Fuller Center tool van while Ethan Keith and Alex Case gather the big rocks shoved up behind the van by a snow plow. There was so much grass around the van, that it could not be moved.
